600 MILLION YOUTH LIVE
BELOW THE POVERTY THRESHOLD OF US$1.90 A DAY

Unsupported by family, victims of addiction, street Youth, Young unmarried mothers, ex-prisoners, Young people with disabilities, Young prisoners, migrants...

Raja is 19 years old, he lives with his auntie on the streets of Kolkata (India); his father died a few years ago. He left school when he was a kid, but has good spoken English. During the day, Raja takes on a series of small jobs to make a living. To the question: "Why do you want to join LP4Y?" he answers clearly and serenely: "I want to do something with my future".

THE LP4Y EXPERIENCE

CREATE LIFE PROJECT CENTERS
& DEVELOP AN INTEGRATION ECOSYSTEM

- The Life Project Centers are Micro Economic Initiative (MEI) incubators. They are located near slum areas
- The Young Adults make a commitment by joining a 15 Youth team, enrolled in "Professional Training for Entrepreneurs", for a 12-month training period (5 days a week, 8 hours a day), +6 months in a company
- Each Youth receives a weekly allowance that enables him/her to follow « Professional Training for Entrepreneurs »
- Each program is supported by partners: academic, business, NGOs, local government units and individuals.

WORK	LEARN	GUIDE
Creation, development & management of an MEI	English, IT, communication and catch up education	Coaching to develop personal skills and build a Life Project Plan

INDIVIDUAL AND GROUP COACHING

Through careful mentoring, the coach guides the Youth towards identifying their own strengths and resourcefulness.

TEAMS OF 15 YOUTHS PER PROGRAM

"The team is not only a team, but also a family. We try to understand each other and to work for the same objective: achieve our dream. We learn and we grow together. To have a good team, we need respect and helpful mindset."

Tirah Sahara, 27 years old, Entrepreneurship Step in Source of Life, Jakarta, Indonesia

"I AM THE ENTREPRENEUR OF MY LIFE"

- ✓ INCLUDED
- ✓ BUSINESS EXPERIENCED
- ✓ HARD WORKING
- ✓ ENGLISH SPEAKING

"Being part of the corporate world is something that I never thought of since I was not able to finish my college level. Hence, this door of opportunity provides me enough reason to dream big and fight the struggles in life."

Reandro Recto, 26 years old. Former member of the Green Program, Manila, Human Resources Service- Specialist, CGI, The Philippines

RESULTS

Of the +600 Youth who have benefitted from PTE:

- 80% have found decent employment
- 5% have set up their own micro-company
- 15% left the PTE before completing the program, but more than half of these returned within 6 months
